Administrative Tribunal at Nagpur

*228. SHRI S.W. DHABE:
SHRI ASHWANI KUMAR:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that it was announced that administrative tribunal for Government servants will be established at Nagpur;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the office of the tibunal started functioning at Nagpur with the jurisdiction of state of Madhya Pradesh and Vidharba area of Maharashtra;

(c) whether it is also a fact that Government have changed the decision subsequently; and

(d) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) Yes, Sir. The Government had notified on 26-7-1985 that one of the Benches of the proposed Administrative Tribunal shall ordinarily sit at Nagpur.

(b) The Central Administrative Tribunal was established on 1-11-1985. However, the Nagpur Bench of the Tribunal did not start functioning because the notification dated 26-7-1985 was superseded by another notification dated 31-10-1985 inw which Nagpur was not notified as one of the additional Benches.

(c) and (d) The Supreme Court while hearing certain writ petitions challenging the validity of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985 had directed in their interim order dated 31-10-1985 that additional Benches of the Tribunal should be set up at the seats of those High Courts where the work load would justify the establishment of an additional Bench. The Government accordingly decided to set up more addtional Benches at the permanent seats of the High Courts in two phases. On 9-12-1985, suitable directions were made in this behalf by the Supreme Court. The establishment of additional Benches is in accordance with these directions.

दिल्ली में परमिटधारियों द्वारा कोयले की कालाबाजारी
